How do I add a car seat to Expedia?

(Quickly Support 1-855-838-5924) To add a car seat to your Expedia booking, you usually do it during the initial rental car reservation under "Add extras," but if booked already, you need to contact the rental company directly (like Avis, Hertz) or use Expedia's help chat to request it, as it's an add-on with daily fees and limited stock, so book early and confirm with the agent/company.

Here's a step-by-step guide:

1. During Initial Booking (Recommended):

- When you select your rental car on Expedia, look for an "Add extras," "Options," or "Add-ons" section.
- Choose the type of car seat (infant, toddler, booster) and the dates needed.
- Review the extra daily fee (around $10-$15/day) before confirming.

2. After Booking (Modifying Reservation):

- Check Your Trip: Go to your Expedia Trips and find your car rental booking.
- Use Chat Support: If you can't find an option to modify, use the Expedia Help Center chat. Type "add a car seat" and follow prompts to connect with an agent.
- Contact Rental Company: Call the rental car provider (e.g., Avis, Budget) directly, referencing your Expedia booking number, and ask them to add a car seat to your reservation.

Important Tips:

- Act Fast: Car seats have limited availability, so request them as soon as possible.
- Confirm Fees: Verify the daily cost and any total charges with the agent or on the Avis website.
- Check Laws: Be aware that child seat laws vary by country/state.
